Objective

The real goal of the game is to create fun lifelong memories, but if you care about the whole winning thing, then try to score the most points by correctly matching other players to their Wrong Answers.

Set up

1. Hand all players a Marker and Answer Board.
2. Assign one person as the Score Keeper and give them the Score Board. Write each Player's name on the lines.
3. Place the Question Cards within reach of all players.
4. The Player with the most unread emails in their inbox is the first to act as The Reader.

How to Play

1. The first Reader chooses one Question Card and reads it aloud.
2. All players (including The Reader) write a Wrong Answer to the question on their Answer Board and then hand it to The Reader face down. Since other player's are going to see your Answer Board, try to be sneaky about your handwriting!

3. The Reader shuffles around the Answer Boards and then, one at a time, reads them aloud and places them face up on the table.
4. The Player to The Reader's left now has the first guess as to who wrote which Wrong Answer. This Guesser chooses One Wrong Answer and tries to match it to One Player.

GAME PLAY

-If they guess correctly, The Player who wrote the Wrong Answer is eliminated from the round (The Reader hands The Player back their Answer Board) and the Guesser can guess again and try to knock out another Player.

-If they guess incorrectly, they are still in the round but the play passes to The Player to their left. Players remain in the round until someone matches them with their Wrong Answer.

5. The Round Ends when only one Player has not been matched to their Wrong Answer. Once a round is complete, the role of The Reader now moves one Player to the left.

6. The Game ends when each Player has had a chance to be The Reader.

Scoring

1 Point for each correct guess during a round.

3 Points to the last Player remaining at the end of the round (i.e., no one has guessed that Player's Wrong Answer).

The Player with the most points at the end of the Game is the WINNER!
